

Guidance for Training Programme Directors and External Advisers on minimum training requirements for:

- Pulmonary Hypertension
- Lung Transplantation
- Cystic Fibrosis

Respiratory Medicine SAC
April 2015

The SAC for Respiratory medicine has provided this guidance on the minimum training requirements for acquiring competencies in Pulmonary Hypertension, Lung Transplantation and Cystic Fibrosis. This guidance should be used in conjunction with the 2010 curriculum (amendments 2014) for Respiratory Medicine.

PULMONARY HYPERTENSION

EITHER:

Three month attachment in a specialist centre or satellite clinic with a case based discussion (CbD) assessment and satisfactory Clinical Supervisor sign off

OR:

Attend the regional training programme session (or equivalent) on pulmonary hypertension and

Attend 2 outpatient sessions in a specialist centre or satellite clinic, and
Undertake a CbD

LUNG TRANSPLANTATION

EITHER:

Three month attachment in a specialist centre or satellite clinic with a CbD and satisfactory Clinical Supervisor sign off

OR:

Attend the regional training programme session (or equivalent) on lung transplantation and

Attend 2 outpatient sessions in a specialist centre or satellite clinic, and
Undertake a CbD

CYSTIC FIBROSIS

EITHER:

Three month attachment in a specialist centre or satellite clinic with a CbD and satisfactory Clinical Supervisor sign off

OR:

Attend the regional training programme session (or equivalent) on cystic fibrosis and

Attend 2 outpatient sessions, and

Attend 1 multidisciplinary team meeting, and

Undertake a CbD