Responsibilities and Duties of Examiners

MRCP(UK) Part 2 Clinical Examination (PACES)

MRCP(UK) PACES is an integral part of the assessment of the knowledge, skills and attitudes of all physicians in training in the UK. As such, the examination is open to scrutiny by the GMC and must comply with its Standards. The Duties and Responsibilities outlined herein are essential to ensure that PACES and its examiners maintain the highest standards.

1. Professional Standing

Examiners must:

Be on the GMC specialist register and hold a licence to practise (or local equivalent when an examiner is not UK based).

Be a Fellow or Collegiate Member of one of the UK Colleges of Physicians. Collegiate Members must have achieved the Certificate of Completion of Training (CCT) at least two years prior to applying, and be in a substantive consultant post. Physicians who are resident outside the UK and who wish to examine in the UK must hold Fellowship of one of the UK Colleges of Physicians.

Inform the PACES lead of their Sponsoring College of any restrictions on their licence to practise in any country in which they have worked.

Complete an annual declaration that they continue to meet the criteria for Examiners as defined by MRCP(UK)

2. Examining Commitment

Examiners must:

Meet, and maintain adherence to, the examiner criteria.

Commit to examine at least 6 cycles (30 candidates) per annum (averaged over 2 years), i.e. a minimum of 2/3 days examining per year.

Refresh their examiner training if unable to take part in the requisite number of cycles over 2 years.

3. Quality Assurance

Examiners must agree to:

The collection of data on their performance, and be prepared to receive feedback on that performance.

Participate in such additional and update training as specified by the Colleges and the MRCP(UK) Clinical Examining Board especially when any change in PACES methodology is planned.

4. Probity

Examiners must be familiar with and adhere to the guidance within the MRCP(UK) Code of Conduct for PACES Examiners, including:

Assessing every candidate equally and fairly, without bias or prejudice.

Ensuring that the confidentiality of candidate information, examination results and materials is respected at all times.

Informing their Sponsoring College of any potential conflicts of interest.

Responding in an open and timely manner to requests for comments on appeals and complaints.

Examiners are NOT permitted to take part in or be involved in commercially run courses related to PACES.

The Responsibilities and Duties of the Chair of a Specialty Certificate Examining Board

Responsibilities

The Chair of the Specialty Certificate Examining Board is responsible to the Medical Director of the MRCP(UK) and will:

Have overall responsibility for the Specialty Certificate Examining Board to ensure that all the academic objectives are met.

Have responsibility for ensuring that the Specialty Certificate Examination meets the standards set by the regulatory body the General Medical Council (GMC).

Be responsible, with the support of the Medical Director, for the selection, appointment and training of board members and the monitoring of their performance.

Be a member of the Specialty Certificate Examination's Standard Setting Groups

Have responsibility for the on-going development of the Specialty Certificate Examination in the context of the decisions taken by the Specialty Certificate Examinations Steering Group and as directed by MRCP(UK) Management Board.

Be a member of the Specialist Certificate Examinations Steering Group, and advise on issues that affect academic, operational, and policy matters of the Examination

Be a member of other Boards or Committees as requested by the Medical Director.

Review the functions of the Specialty Certificate Examining Board and advise the Specialty Certificates Steering Group and the MRCP(UK) Management Board on the strategy that should be adopted to ensure the Examination can be delivered both within and outside the UK.

Support MRCP(UK) Central Office in their work in developing and delivering the Examination.

Requirements

It is a requirement for all those working with MRCP(UK) and Specialty Certificate Examinations that:

They confirm that they hold MRCP(UK) or an equivalent postgraduate diploma, that they are a member or fellow of one of the three Colleges, and that they are registered and in good standing with the GMC.

That they confirm as requested that they are up to date with their employer's equality and diversity training, and are up to date with their employer's appraisal process.

All those working with the MRCP(UK) exams are expected to have been actively engaged in the training of junior doctors within the last two years, and to be up to date as appropriate with National Guidelines, and CPD requirements.

Time Commitment

The Specialty Certificate Board will normally hold one examining board meeting per year and run one diet.

This is a non-salaried position though all reasonable expenses and travel costs will be met by the MRCP(UK) Central Office in line with the Federation expenses policy.

The tenure of board appointments is five years. Subject to the agreement of the Associate Medical Director for Written Examinations, individual tenure may be extended by up to a maximum of five years to ensure orderly succession planning.
